Thoughts about collecting, especially

ARCHAIC AND CLASSICAL GREEK COIN LITERATURE

By Daniel L. Koppersmith

I collect most everything. It is really sad when one goes to a grocery store and returns with a collection of food. Joel Malter recognized it—in himself, in me and in others. He called it a collector gene, or an affliction derived from the collecting bug. Douglas Saville is quintessentially English: he calls it “crazy!” George Kolbe is too kind to enter the fracas. I will not embarrass myself by describing it in Freudian terms! But whether the nature or nurture argument prevails, it is a serious malady. However, some very important benefits accrue from the art of collecting. The BCD auction catalogs are an ample, if not outstanding, testament. Collectors not only amuse themselves, but they amass and compile data for the rest of mankind. I hope my library will illuminate the way for other collectors of Archaic and Classical Greek Coin Literature.

My library has been carefully and thoughtfully assembled over the past fifteen years. In my opinion, it contains all the important references for Archaic and Classical Greek Coins, including every Sylloge Nummorum Graecorum produced to recent date. Condition is generally exceptional, as worn copies have been replaced. Most of the books are bound, as described in the catalog. The library was much larger, but less important works were removed, leaving an extremely important, concise core—if over one hundred feet of literature can be described as concise. In my opinion, the auction catalogs are all the essential ones for Archaic and Classical Greek Coins, again with less important catalogs culled to minimize space. I wrote an article published in The Celator to this end (Volume 21, Number 5, May 2007), which is reproduced later in the catalog through the kindness of the Publisher/Editor, Kerry K. Wetterstrom.

Even the most casual reader will notice some books which do not directly pertain to Archaic and Classical Greek Coins, such as Lot 1, the Adelson treatise on The American Numismatic Society. There are also a dozen festschrifts, of varying importance, but certainly much more important than the other thirty-odd ones I did not include in this library. One will notice that I prefer loose plates to those bound within a text volume, which more easily allows for study and comparison of plates from the same or different works. There are a few books from which I chose to not part, such as Georges Le Rider's own copy of his monumental work on Crete: Monnaies Crétoises du Ve au Ier Siècle av. J.-C., an autographed copy of Colin M. Kraay's pamphlet Coins of Ancient Athens, and a worn G. Kenneth Jenkins' Ancient Greek Coins. Three new important books are also excluded: Katerini Liampi's Argilos. A Historical and Numismatic Study, Kenneth A. Sheedy's The Archaic and Early Classical Coinages of the Cyclades, and Starvi Topalov's Apollonia Pontica: Contribution to the Study of the Coin Minting of the City, 6th – 1st c. B.C.—the last of which was received days before this auction catalogue is scheduled to go to press!

And finally, one small monograph on my favorite collecting area, the earliest coins of all, electrum from Asia Minor, is excluded as I have only seen one copy, mine, from the Georges Le Rider library: Novella Vismara's Monetazione Arcaica in Elettro dell'Asia Minore.

While the Sylloge Nummorum Graecorum is complete to recent date, not all are important for Archaic and Classical Greek Coins. Some do not even depict a single Archaic or Classical Greek coin. In my opinion, the SNGs which are most important for Archaic and Classical Greek Coins are few in number: SNG Copenhagen; SNG München; SNG France, especially Parts 1 and 6; SNG Great Britain, especially Volumes I through VI; and, SNG American Numismatic Society. Other SNGs which contain reasonable numbers of Archaic and Classical Greek Coins are: SNG Dreer; SNG Aarhus; SNG von Aulock; SNG Tübingen; SNG Finland; SNG Euphratid; SNG Alpha Bank; SNG Christomanos; SNG Sweden I; SNG Sweden II; SNG Switzerland I; SNG Turkey; and SNG Berry.

The SNGs are listed in alphabetical order by country, which allows for continuity within a series and easier recognition by all. A little known fact is that SNG Copenhagen was slated to be Volume V in the Great Britain series, but the German occupation of Denmark prevented its issue under the auspices of the British Academy. Hence, the SNG fascicules were subsequently identified by country of location, a precedent followed here.

Some important articles on Archaic and Classical Greek Coins have been published in journals, periodicals, festschrifts, and odd references, including unavailable doctoral theses. I include some in this library as offprints, but have largely excluded them as the line had to be drawn somewhere. I extend my sincere apologies to these authors whose important contributions are seemingly ignored. Exhaustive bibliographies are available in many of the volumes in this library which will direct the reader to these more obscure writings. For example, the more recent SNGs, the BCD Collection auction catalogs, and the more recent catalogs of larger auction firms contain very good bibliographies. I have also excluded works which depict few Archaic and Classical Greek Coins, even if the text is important. This decision is related to space—every library, even that of Basil Demetriadi in Athens, has spatial boundaries!

DAN KOPPERSMITH, VISITING TO JOEL MALTER SPECIAL YEARS AGO

Periodicals in my library are very valuable to the bibliophile, and all five present here are entirely complete. The Asylum, of the Numismatic Bibliomania Society, has been the mouthpiece for bibliophiles of all numismatic interests since its inception in 1980. The Celator has striven to be the Journal for Ancient and Medieval Coinage for twenty-one years. The Nomismatika Khronika, of the Hellenic Numismatic Society, has served Ancient Greek coin aficionados since 1972. But the most important and certainly longest running publication for Archaic and Classical Greek Coins is the Numismatic Chronicle, first published in 1838. The first photographic plate appeared in the year 1866. The second was not until 1873, but since 1989 a plethora of photographic material has been available. And lastly, Numismatic Literature, of the American Numismatic Society, has kept us informed of the latest numismatic literature since 1947.

The auction catalog section of this library deserves special comments, aside from The Celator article cited above. I once owned hundreds of linear feet of catalogs. It was an imposing task to acquire, organize and store them. That burden forced me to recycle the least important and then sell the less important catalogs. Now, I will sell the crème de la crème.

As the BCD Collection comprises the best, the largest and the most researched collection of specific areas of Ancient Greek Coins ever documented, it is absolutely necessary that I highlight these catalogs, which actually comprise a work in progress. In chronological order, the first six are as follows: (I) Münzen von Korinth, Numismatik Lanz Münzen, Auktion 105, 26 November 2001; (II) Münzen von Euboia, Numismatik Lanz München, Auktion 111, 25 November 2002; (III) Coins of Olympia, Leu Numismatics, Auction Leu 90, 10 May 2004; (IV) Coinage of Boiotia, Classical Numismatic Group, Auction Triton IX, 10 January 2006; (V) Coins of Peloponnesos, LHS Numismatics, Auction LHS 96, 8-9 May 2006; and, (VI) Antike Griechische Münzen: Akarnanien und Aetolien, Münzen & Medaillen, Auktion 23, 18 Oktober 2007. Fortunately, I have at least four copies of each catalog!

I will now report on exceptions in this sale from my article in The Celator. I am keeping my Antiqua and Harlan J. Berk catalogs because they contain many antiquities. I am keeping Ciani & Vinchon because of its association with Jean Vinchon and his catalogs, which contain many antiquities. Fortunately, I have a duplicate set of Ars Classica and Classical Numismatic Group to keep. I am keeping Gemini because of its association with Harlan J. Berk. I am keeping Numismatica Ars Classica because it is an excellent series (written in English). And I am keeping the two Schlessinger catalogs. Lastly, there are a few scattered catalogs which I am keeping for personal reasons: (1) the Kunstfreund sale of Bank Leu and Münzen und Medaillen as a modern masterpiece; (2-3) Jacob Hirsch's Rhoisopoulos Collection [XIII], inscribed to me by Basil Demetriadi, and Weber Collection (XXI), a gem from Douglas Saville; (4) the Ratto sale of April 4, 1927; (5) the Sambon & Canessa sale of June 27, 1927; (6) the Benson Collection sold by Sotheby, Wilkinson & Hodge in 1909; and, (7-8) the Hunt and Athena Collections sold by Sotheby in the early 1990s, also modern masterpieces. These catalogs belong in everyone's library.

Lastly, my library contains many auction catalogs devoted solely to Numismatic Literature. In fact, a lot certain to fetch a high bid in the sale will be none other than the one containing a complete set of specially bound catalogs from the cataloger of this sale, George Frederick Kolbe. Kolbe's catalogs, numbering over one hundred in over thirty years of auctions, are the most important reference for Numismatic Literature ever compiled, including Ancient Greek, Roman, Medieval, Byzantine, American, British and World Coins. In fact, my initial Want List was derived from a careful reading of Kolbe's catalogs followed by a viewing of the items in the Library of Basil Demetriadi. If it is not in Kolbe, it either does not exist or it is a single copy somewhere!

Parting is such a sweet sorrow. But this is not a complete parting, as is evident. My interests in Archaic and Classical Greek Coins continue. I still have projects. Pursuit of this collection has provided me with immense pleasure and thousands of hours of study. My patient wife, Ginger, will attest to these claims. I thank you, Ginger, for allowing me this pursuit with only the occasional complaint!

I have also made good friends along the way, despite my isolative existence. My interest in the Ancient Greeks dates to childhood, with the origins neither really known nor understood. Joel Malter introduced me to the accessible world of Greek Coins in the early 1990s. He was an inveterate collector, a fund-raiser for a dealer. The quest for knowledge, that is books, led me to George Kolbe, who has been the most scrupulous businessman I have ever met. He has also been the best source of knowledge, as indicated above. Then I met Douglas Saville, the European counterpart, actually predecessor, to George. He has provided me with polished gems, also known as fabulous books. Lastly, I met Basil Demetriadi, through an Internet posting. He let me have some of his duplicates at that time, two of which I part with here, but others, never. Except for Joel Malter, who sadly passed the night between sale dates of his numismatic library in 2006, George, Douglas and Basil remain very good friends. I thank all of them for their untiring help in the formation of my library, and for their friendship over the miles and years. Each book carries with it knowledge and history – enjoy it as much as I have during my moment of possession!

Daehn 52. The first edition of this landmark work. Though revised editions of numismatic books are usually preferred, sometimes it pays to consult the earlier editions. In 1993, a quite wonderful eight volume manuscript by Maximilian Borrell was sold at auction in Paris. Though deleted from the more popular second edition of Historia Numorum—and not mentioned in the Paris catalogue—the volume at hand contains a key bit of data concerning it. In the acknowledgments section of the preface, Head wrote: "MM. Rollin and Feuillet have likewise rendered me an invaluable service by liberally placing at my disposal the volumes of the late Mr. M. Borrell's carefully compiled MS. Catalogue of Greek coins." Had this information stressing the importance of the manuscript been more easily accessible, perhaps the cataloguers would have mentioned it in their description, and surely this unique and extensive manuscript would have been more widely appreciated and sought after by those participating in the sale. In the revised and enlarged 1911 edition of Historia Numorum, the author himself allowed that "(i)t is possible that, among those who are familiar only in a general way with the old edition of this work, there may be some who on comparing with it the present revised edition will at first sight be inclined to think that some portions of what has been omitted were of greater interest than what has been added."

Grierson pages 18 & 32 Daehn 52 Kroh page 32. "This encyclopedia of Greek numismatics, long regarded as one of the best books ever written on Greek coinage, has been the inspiration for all other references that have followed... full of insight and information that cannot be easily found elsewhere... it still stands on its own." An unusually well-preserved example of this landmark work. Though outdated in some respects, Historia Numorum remains the standard and most comprehensive single volume reference work ever written on ancient Greek coins.

Ex libris Georges Le Rider. Clain-Stefanelli 1806*, 2305*, 2368*, 2417*, 2418, & 2678. Clain-Stefanelli, Numismatics—An Ancient Science, pages 42 & 43: "Imhoof-Blumer's name trails like a comet across the field of Greek numismatics....Inspired by Theodor Mommsen's idea of creating an extensive work on Greek coins as a companion to the 'Corpus of Latin Inscriptions', the Prussian Academy of Sciences in Berlin assigned to Imhoof-Blumer the direction of Die Antiken Münzen Nord-Griechenlands. Such a corpus was intended to supersede all publications on the subject by describing every known coin type of each city or province within a chronological sequence, with full attention given to all available source material. This dream of a corpus of all ancient Greek coins seems to have haunted numismatists since the early 16th century, when Wolfgang Lazius first proposed such a work. But it proved too ambitious even for the late 1800's, and despite competent scholars, this gigantic German work progressed very slowly until it finally came to a halt in the late 1930's." Complete sets of this still indispensable work are seldom offered.

Ex Thomas L. Moore, with his printed address label; ex libris Harry W. Bass, Jr. An indispensable aid, one of a small number of copies issued separately. Noe wrote in the foreword: "The need for an index to The American Journal of Numismatics has long been felt. The present work was undertaken to supply this need in the Library of the American Numismatic Society. The Index is the outcome of the usefulness demonstrated there, and is the result of much careful thought."

While the Circular is a treasure trove of useful numismatic information it, like so many periodical publications, suffers from an inability to easily access that wealth of data. Grierson page 19, Clain-Stefanelli 776. One of the truly great scholarly numismatic periodicals, certainly the most important ever published in the English language. Within a six year period, Revue numismatique, the Numismatic Chronicle, and Revue belge de numismatique began publication, and today all three remain indispensable storehouses of information on ancient coins, medieval and modern numismatics (especially relating to their respective countries of publication), and on a wide variety of other numismatic topics. The 1866 and 1873 volumes each featured a photographic plate of coins. Several 1874-1878 volumes also included a number and then, beginning in 1889, virtually all coin illustrations were reproduced on superb autotype plates, which allow for enlargement of detail under magnification. This innovation, combined with the prolific output of the superb ensemble of numismatists centered around the British Museum, produced a body of numismatic research that today remains of inestimable utility. Complete sets of the Chronicle are rarely offered. The first series is seldom available, and many volumes in the first half of the twentieth century, particularly those issued during and surrounding the World Wars remain elusive.

IMPORTANT AUCTION CATALOGS OFFERING ARCHAIC AND CLASSICAL GREEK COINS

by Daniel L. Koppersmith

REPRINTED WITH PERMISSION FROM THE CLEATOR

There are literally thousands of auction catalogs offering Archaic and Classical Greek Coins, but there is no guide to inform the numismatic scholar or collector as to which of these catalogs would be a worthwhile addition to an excellent working library. This article is an attempt to rectify this situation, but only as far as Archaic and Classical Greek Coins are concerned, that is, Greek Coins from their origins down to the accession of Alexander the Great in 336 B. C. The term, "important auction catalogs," refers to auction catalogs which contain excellent photographic plates. Scholarly attributions of the depicted coins are also important, but incorrect attributions can be easily modified through the study of excellent photographic plates.

An inherent error in a listing of this type is the author's own views. Certainly there are auction catalogs depicting outstanding, if not even unique, Ancient Greek Coins which have been excluded here. This listing is intended to include the combination of quantity and quality, in the author's opinion, such that the total number of recommended auction catalogs is minimal, albeit still beyond the scope of the average collector's library. Auction houses are rated from one to four stars, with four stars being the most important. It must be stressed again that many will disagree with these opinions. There are many auction houses left unmentioned, such as Gerhard Hirsch, Malter, and Stack's to name three. These firms offer too few Archaic and Classical Greek coins to make acquisition of their very long series worthwhile, in the author's opinion. The author accepts full responsibility for errors and omissions, and apologizes in advance for such. Correspondence and criticism are invited.

The author is indebted to Basil Demetriadi of Athens, Greece, who offered knowledgeable assistance as well as access to his essentially complete library of auction catalogs covering all ancient coins. George Kolbe of Crestline, California, and Douglas Saville of Reading, England, were extremely helpful in the procurement of the auction catalogs identified herein. These three individuals may be part of an uncommon hobby, but they are giants of gentlemen in the entire world.

*ANTIQUA. This is an ongoing series of fifty catalogs begun in 1994 illustrating about eight hundred select coins.

*ARS CLASSICA (Formerly Naville & Co.) This extremely well-produced series of twelve catalogs (1-12) (1912-19) was issued between 1921 and 1934. A staggering twenty thousand coins are magnificently illustrated.

BANK LEU & MUNZEN UND MEDAILLEN. These two eminent auction houses collaborated for two important sales: the lesser of which was the Wiggeler Collection with about five hundred fifty illustrated coins (3-4 December 1965). The "Sammlung eines Kunstfreundes" (Gillet Collection, 28 May 1974) catalog illustrates about two hundred fifty coins of the highest quality and rarity.

*BARANOWSKY. The Traverso Collection was auctioned on 25 February 1931 and illustrates almost eight hundred coins.

*BERK. This long series of Buy or Bid Sales is important for its quantity (more than ten thousand) and quality of well-illustrated and attributed coins. Sale 45, 21 October 1986, is the first such sale printed on quality paper; this series is ongoing with the most recent being Sale 153 which closed on 13 March 2007.

BOURGEY. The important Chandon Collection was auctioned on 17-19 June 1959 and illustrates almost six hundred coins.

*CAHN. The highly important Walcher de Molthein Collection was the pinnacle sale for Cahn, spanning 25 February through 2 March 1901 and illustrating over thirty-three hundred coins.

CIANI & VINCHON. The Hindamian Collection was auctioned on 6-8 February 1956 and illustrates about seven hundred coins.

*EGGER. Egger produced photographically illustrated catalogs from 1899 through 1914 (7, 17, 18, 20, 23, 39, 40, 41, 45, 46). Although less than half of the coins are illustrated, this series is still important, especially the last four auctions which illustrate more than twenty-seven hundred coins.

EGUARDENT FRERES. The Collignon Collection was auctioned on 1-19 December 1919 and illustrates about four hundred fifty coins.

*FREEMAN & SEAR. Fourteen auction catalogs and thirteen fixed price lists since 1994 illustrate several thousand coins with excellent attribution.

GEMINI. This collaboration of Berk and Freeman & Sear has produced three quality yearly catalogs since 2005 illustrating over one thousand coins.

*GLENDINING. Although this London firm has offered coins for auction for decades, only the Lockett Collection is of individual importance. It consisted of four parts with almost three thousand illustrated coins (1) 25-28 October 1955, (2) 12-13 February 1958, (3) 27-28 May 1959 and (4) 23 February 1961.

HAMBURGER. Of three generations of numismatic auction houses, only the "Hervorragende Sammlung" auctioned on 3-4 April 1933 is of importance, with about eight hundred fifty illustrated coins.

HAUCK & AUFHAUSER (Formerly Bankhaus H. Aufhauser). This ongoing series of nineteen catalogs issued since 1984 illustrates thousands of coins.

HELBING. The 8 November 1928 auction is important with almost one thousand illustrated coins.

HESS. This is another firm with many auctions, but only one of real importance, the Nitsch Collection on 3 April 1939 with over seven hundred illustrated coins.

ADOLPH HESS AND BANK LEU. These two auction houses collaborated in a very important series of auctions from 1954 until 1971 (1, 2, 3, 7, 9, 11, 16, 19, 22, 24, 28, 31, 36, 45, 49), which contained over forty-five hundred illustrated coins.

JACOB HIRSCH. This very important firm had twenty-three sales (5-8, 11-21, 25, 26, 29-34) illustrating over nine thousand coins, with three of the sales being particularly important: the Rhousopoulos Collection, 13: 15-16 May 1905 (about sixteen hundred illustrated coins); the Weber Collection, 21: 13-14 November 1907 (about thirteen hundred illustrated coins); and the Philipsen Collection, 25: 29-30 November 1909 (about one thousand illustrated coins).

LANZ MUNCHEN (Formerly Gitta Kastner). This firm has produced sixty catalogs (4-82 even numbers, 86, 88, 92, 97, 100, 102, 105, 106, 109, 111, 112, 114, 117, 120, 121, 123, 125, 128, 131, 132) since 1973 with excellent photography and attributions for more than ten thousand illustrated coins.

LHS (Formerly Leu and Bank Leu). This auction house has a reputation for offering only the highest quality coins in its thirty-nine auctions (2, 6, 7, 13, 15, 18, 20, 22, 25, 28, 30, 33, 38, 42, 45, 48, 50, 52, 53, 54, 57, 59, 61, 65, 71, 72, 74, 76, 77, 79, 81, 83, 86, 90, 91, 93, 95, 96, 97) since 1972 with over ten thousand illustrated coins.

MÜNZEN UND MEDAILLEN. This eminent firm produced thirty-nine catalogs (2, 4, 6, 7, 8, 10, 11, 13, 19, 25, 28, 32, 37, 38, 41, 43, 44, 47, 52, 53, 54, 61, 64, 66, 68, 72, 73, 75, 76, 77, 79, 81, 85, 86, 88, 89, 90, 94, 95) between 1943 and 2004, when its doors closed. It also produced 609 fixed price lists, with number 76 forward printed on high quality paper. These catalogs and lists are important as more than ten thousand coins are illustrated.

*MÜNZEN & MEDAILLEN DEUTSCHLAND. This series of twenty catalogs since 1997 illustrates more than five thousand coins.

*NEW YORK SALE. Baldwin's of London, M & M Numismatics of Washington, and (Vecchi of London, but more recently) Markov of New York have collaborated since 1998 in a series of nine auctions (1-5, 7, 9, 11, 14) with several thousand illustrated coins.

SAMBON & C. ET E. CANESSA. Three very important auctions were conducted in the same year, illustrating about one thousand coins: the Strozzi Collection, 15-22 April 1907; the Nervegna and Martinetti Collection, 18-19 November 1907; and the DeCicco Collection, 19-21 December 1907.

SANTAMARIA. Three important auctions illustrate about one thousand coins: the Hartwig Collection, 7-8 March 1910; the Magnaguti Collection, 12-13 October 1949; and the Signorelli Collection, 25 October 1951.

SCHLESSINGER. Schlessinger conducted two important auctions of coins from the Hermitage, illustrating about nineteen hundred of them: 11: 26-27 February 1934; and 13: 4-5 February 1935.

SOTHEY, WILKINSON & HODGE. This firm held hundreds of auctions, but only three illustrate many important coins, and not many at that because of the enormous cost of plates at the turn of the last century: the Montagu Collection, 23-28 March 1896 and 15-19 March 1897, about four hundred illustrated coins; the Bunbury Collection, 15-22 June 1896 and 7-12 December 1896, about three hundred illustrated coins; and the Benson Collection, 3-11 February 1909, about six hundred illustrated coins.

*SOTHEY'S. The modern firm of Sotheby's offers collections of the utmost importance from time to time. These include the Ward Collection of 4-5 April 1973 with over six hundred illustrated coins; the four part Brand Collection of 9 June 1983, 1 February 1984, 25-26 October 1984 and 24 October 1985 with over five hundred illustrated coins; the four part Hunt Collection of 19 June 1990, 21-22 June 1990, 4 December 1990 and 19-20 June 1991 with over thirteen hundred illustrated coins; and the two part Athena Collection of 26 October 1993 and 27-28 October 1993 with almost eleven hundred illustrated coins. Two additional auctions of 5 July 1995 and 8 July 1996 illustrate almost one hundred coins each.

TKALEC. Tkalec has issued fifteen excellent catalogs since 1977 illustrating several thousand very high quality coins.

TRAD'ART (THE NUMISMATIC AUCTION). This firm produced three auction catalogs in the early 1980's (TNA) and five more in the early 1990's (Trad'Art) which are of the finest quality available. About one thousand coins are superbly illustrated.

The catalogs from this select listing of forty auction houses occupy about thirty linear feet of bookshelf space. If one has only five feet of space and only a few thousand dollars to spend on catalogs, the combination of Ars Classica and Classical Numismatic Group would be very adequate, as both very high quality coins and a large variety of coins are illustrated. Berk or Lanz München could be substituted for CNG with minimal loss of content. Of course, a complete Sylloge Nummorum Graecorum and British Museum Catalogue are taken for granted...

Grierson page 285. Diehl (1967). An exceptional collection, though comprising a relatively small portion of Montagu's magnificent holding. These two sales brought $195,000 to the mounting study of the time. A remarkably accomplished British numismatist, Montagu conducted himself in purchasing his first ancient Greek coin (and then his 1893-1894) against the advice of the Paris dealer M. Hoffmann, and from then on the rest of his collection was judiciously multiplied. The preface notes that "since the acquisition of the Montagu cabinet in 1893, no collection of Greek coins as complete for their quality, condition and numismatic importance, as this formed by Mr. Alexander Montagu, retired in public auction in this country."

431 Kolbe, G. Frederick/George Frederick. NUMISMATIC LITERATURE PUBLICATIONS. From 1987 to date, hardbound catalogues have been issued on a subscription basis. Several of the early catalogues present here are inscribed by the cataloguer. Fourteen parts complete, bound in three volumes. 567, (1) pages + titles and preliminary text to the various parts, nicely illustrated throughout and interleaved with ruled sheets, annotated in ink and pencil, also including clippings and portraits from newspapers and other publications. Addenda text and illustrations pasted in the text and on the interleaves. Uniformly bound in contemporary reddish-brown full morocco, decorated and lettered in gilt, top page edges gilt, marbled paper endpapers, spine of first volume detached, other joints starting. Bindings easily restorable by a competent binder. Internally a very fine set. Each volume housed in a recent black cloth clamshell case, lettered in gilt. (1,500.00) Grierson page 252. *Clain-Stefanelli 13878. The rare original edition of this great classic. The illustrations are photographically-printed and are far superior to any of the reprints. Ex Wm. Pomfret Burra, whose original February 23, 1916 £3.18.0 invoice for Parts I-XI is laid in the third volume and features a one penny stamp and Dalton's signature in black ink. Later in the library of the noted explorer, or numismatist, and antiquary T. W. Bagshawe, with his typewritten acquisition tickets affixed to the verso of the front free flyleaves. Ex Spink London 12 July 2001 @ £850. This heavily annotated set of Dalton & Hamer amply reflects a keen interest in eighteenth century British tokens, in both collecting and historical terms. Included at the beginning of the first volume are several leaves of handwritten notes, including "Extracts from Thomas Sharp's Introduction to his Catalogue of...the Collection of Sir George Chetwynd." Numerous other handwritten notes, present in all three volumes, include historical background and many interesting notes on provenance and rarity. A few examples follow: Gloucestershire,

Badminton: "Complete set of the Badminton tokens from Mr Dalton, ex Mr Bliss; cabinet A"; Gloucestershire, Brimscombe Port 61: "From Mr Dalton D. Silver proof from Mr Dalton ex: Mr Bliss' cabinet OS. RRR. 50/-"; Kent, Stone 1/4: "Baldwin NO. RR. From his private cabinet. Conder (1798) attributes Stone 1/2d to Kent, also Sharpe 1834. There is a village of Stone in Worcestershire which is also a hop proving County"; Middlesex, Hackney 23-24: "Possibly the pieces were struck by J. Rebello in memory of David Alves Rebello, probably his father who died in 1796. Waters"; Suffolk, Bungay 20: "Welch sale Sep 17 1801. Bt. by Miller 43/-"; "Mr. John Dudman, whose copy of Atkins I have, was a well known London collector. Mr Baldwin bought his collection on his death (1915). I have several of his pieces." etc. The Middlesex section, in particular, is heavily annotated. Sources/provenances include Dalton (a great many), Baldwin, Spink, Bliss, Dudman, Davis, Chetwynd, Glendinning (Dec. 1918), Lincoln, Jas. S. Burra, Daniels, et al. There are a number of references to the 1801 Welch and Nickson sales. A tipped August 21, 1918 letter to Burra, signed by R. Dalton, lists several errors in the Middlesex, Warwick, and Non Local sections. Also included are "Specimen Plates" from The Virtuoso's Companion and Pye's 1801 Provincial Coins & Tokens. Three sheets of what appear to be handwritten invoices are included, citing D & H number, provenance, and price, with totals of £62.16.6, £101.16.6, and £57.19.3. A number of textual corrections, mostly spelling, have also been made, and the collector's "wants" are noted after specimens not in the collection. A unique, most interesting set of D & H, capturing in no small measure the romance and allure of this fascinating series.

450 Dalton, R. & Hamer, S. H. THE PROVINCIAL TOKEN-COINAGE OF THE 18TH CENTURY. ILLUSTRATED. Cold Spring: Davissons Ltd., 1990 (1991). Two volumes. THE BOB VAIL LIBRARYCLASSIC AMERICAN NUMISMATIC
AUCTION SALE CATALOGUES ETC.A Complete Set of Numbered Barney Bluestone Sales

505 Bluestone, Barney. AUCTION SALES. RARE COINS, TOKENS, MEDALS, PAPER MONEY, ETC. NUMBERS 1-109. Syracuse, 1931-1950. A complete set of numbered sales, one hundred nine catalogues in all. Sales 1-98 octavo; sales 99-109 quarto. Many later sales with prices realized lists. Original printed paper covers throughout, some a trifle worn and/or discolored, some annotated in pencil. Very good/very fine. (1,750.00)

A number of later catalogues ex Charles L. Ruby, signed by him on the front covers: a small number ex Dr. Kenneth Sartoris. Of Bluestone, John Adams wrote: "Those who die penniless generally manage to do so in obscurity. Such is the case with Barney Bluestone, once a prominent numismatist but today an enigma." The Grinnell paper money sales (see following lot) were the highlight of his career though he did not include them in this numbered series. Adams notes: "The other 109 Bluestone catalogues are sought less avidly than they should be. A collector can assemble most of them at modest cost, although complete sets are almost unknown."

506 Bluestone, Barney. CATALOGUE OF THE "ORIGINAL" CELEBRATED ALBERT A. GRINNELL COLLECTION OF UNITED STATES PAPER CURRENCY. PARTS I-VII. Syracuse, 1944-1946. Seven catalogues. 651, (1) pages, frontispiece portrait of Grinnell, 5898 lots, first sale with prices realized list. (also) Bluestone, Barney. IMPORTANT PUBLIC AUCTION OF LARGE SIZE U. S. (200.00)

Clain-Stefanelli 13539. McKerchar 155. Adams page 115: "The high point of the Bluestone series is, of course, Albert A. Grinnell's paper money. A serious collector (and, in real life, the President of Grinnell Brothers Music House—Grinnell spent most of his adult life in assembling a landmark collection, included therein were holdings of United States notes, National Bank notes and New York paper money that remain unrivaled in both scope and features... The Grinnell sales (or reprints thereof) are mandatory for any library embracing U.S. numismatics."

507 Bluestone, Barney/Salt City Coin Co. TWENTY-EIGHT FIXED PRICE LISTS AND TWO PREMIUM GUIDES. Syracuse, circa late 1920s-1950. Three lists, two of No. 23 and one of No. 24, all with the address 117 Cumberland Avenue, appear to have been issued in the late 1920s; "A Magnificent Collection of United States Large Cents..." with the address 165 E. Onondaga St., is dated 1933 in pencil; two "Salt City Coin Co." lists, one with the address 200 Denison Building, the other from 167 E. Onondaga St., were apparently issued in 1935 & 1936 respectively; a price list in red card covers, with the address 167 Onondaga St., may have been issued circa 1937; another in red card covers, with the same address, is dated July 1938 and another one, issued as a flyer, is undated; four lists from 526 S. Warren St. are present, two undated, two dated November 1943 & July 1944; a list issued from

224 Harrison Street is dated January 1947; a large single sheet list is dated June, 1947; twelve mimeographed lists are dated Sept. 1947, Oct. 1947, Jan. 1948, March 1948, June 1948, Sept.-Oct. 1948, Oct. 1948, Dec. 1948-Jan. 1949, April 1949, July-Aug. 1949; Oct.-Nov. 1949, & Aug.-Sept. 1950; and a final mimeographed list, circa 1950, issued from Miami, Florida (as is the Aug.-Sept. 1950 list). Included are a few other Bluestone lists present in photocopy. One copy of List No. 23 features a printed leaf list of items already sold and the heading on page 46 of one has been corrected by hand in ink and by an ink stamp in the other. Also included are two Bluestone premium guides, The Salt City Coin Book United States and Canadian Coins, issued from 117 Cumberland Avenue, and the Salt City Coin Co. United States and Canadian Coins, with a printed address of 167 E. Onondaga St., corrected in ink to 206 S. State St. Both 24mo, in printed card covers. Overall condition ranges from very good to very fine. (250.00)

An interesting assemblage of seldom encountered Barney Bluestone publications, by far the most we have ever offered at one time.

An interesting publication, seldom encountered. However, in this business, when we talk of value, interest or numismatic we are reminded that the intrinsic value of a thing is just as much as it will bring."

Classics of auction sale catalogues, spanning fifty years, includes far more than Mehl's share of the great American coin collections of the day. The method that Mehl employed - mail auction - gave him greater control over the results than that exercised by his more traditional counterparts in the East. The coins in some of Mehl's more important sales may have been owned or controlled by him and sales on occasion apparently changed hands in less than conventional transactions. B. Max was not a numismatic scholar, and as John Adams notes: "The lack of attention paid to numismatic issues was a serious flaw in all of Mehl's auction results." However, as unreliable as some of Mehl's descriptions have proved to be, the plan that is that, for over half a century he attracted a major share of the best collections that came to market. Beginning with Charles C. Swell in 1911, and including a role call of such greats as H. O. Graham, William Dunham and William Oberlin, his consignors represent an important slice of numismatic history. Mehl's one-quarter of the B. Max Mehl auctions draw a rating of A- or better. Thus, it is the importance of the consignments that makes the Mehl series a valued collection. The strength of the material is enhanced by the charisma of the Mehl master, the two combining to create strong prices whenever these catalogues come on the market. With Mehl sales are modest in appearance and the good prices are usually under $500 according to Adams. About half the catalogues are present because difficult to obtain; the other half are readily available.

Occasional minor faults (cover soiling, wear, etc.). Generally a fine or better set. Also included is a duplicate of Sale 368 and annotated photocopies of Sale 287, featuring Festus Morgan's large cents. (1,000.00)

Adams pages 75-76: "In the Morgenthau auctions, Raymond teamed with James Macallister. The son of a wealthy Philadelphia 'limmy' operated in the higher circles of numismatic society. He was on particularly intimate terms with the large cent aristocracy—George Clapp, T. James Larke, Carl Würtzbach, Henry Hines and Howard Nelcomb. Large cents are well represented in the Morgenthau sales, with Macallister's friends serving both as active buyers and regular consignors. In addition, Macallister handled many private transactions, serving as an all-purpose intermediary for those who chose to be one step removed from the commercial aspects of the hobby. According to Dr. Sheldon, the man knew his coppers and, moreover, worked as well as trained by those with voluminous deals. The Raymond-Macallister team authored no less than fifty-four numismatic sales. Raymond secured most of the consignments. Macallister did most of the cataloguing. The content of the sales is top grade, with coins of the rare-four-leaf variety of a rating sometimes found in particular sections, including large cents, early proofs and American gold. The latter being featured in part by Roosevelt's success in demonetization. Included with sale 397 is a most interesting typesetter's proof of a 1945 letter to Bill (Sunshine) signed by one of James G. Macallister's friends in response. "Thanks for Moore order for the lot of 1,000. Can supply 1000 more cents in a better grade of condition but probably not so wide a range of dates at the same price 5¢ each. Sent you letter for the sale, and can give you a little practical information about some of them. No. 85 will bring more than twice our top bid—smaller centennial set even better but follow. It is doubtful many of the other bids will be accepted but the above are already bid up to about the prices indicated. Good buying more money in New York than they do in Rochester. We don't do some priced cataloging but BlueStone is going to attend the sale and you can doubt get the prices and names of buyers from him. Sale 383 includes the carbon copy of a telegram I have referred to in 1945 letter, reading in part: 'I have your catalogue of Sale number 385 and it looks as though it is a confirmation of my conclusion that all these... From the list I possess which is a set of 1,000 proof coins, 1945... Five fine shilling coins, coppers and half cents and a number of other British... produce you are selling them back to put in a different sale but I would be glad if you would let me... Sale 388 Newcomb's early date cents is Charles L. Ropes's photographically copied and the large cent lots include late pencil notes with the names of the buyers."

RARE AND OBSCURE NINETEENTH CENTURY TRACTS ON AMERICAN PAPER MONEY, BANKING, SILVER COINAGE, ETC.

ARRANGED IN NO PARTICULAR ORDER

558 Gouge, William M. AN INQUIRY INTO THE EXPEDIENCY OF DISPENSING WITH BANK AGENCY AND BANK PAPER IN THE FISCAL CONCERNS OF THE UNITED STATES. Philadelphia: Printed by William Stavely, 1837. 56 pages, tables. Original printed brown wrappers, top half inch of front wrapper torn off. Very good or better. (200.00)

Sabin 28072. Apparently a presentation copy signed by the author. "Wm. M. Gouge," written in ink, remains near the top of the front wrapper, but a possible inscription has been excised. To the left of the autograph, "from Henry R. Wagner" is stamped in ink. Wagner (1862-1957) was one of the greatest collectors and bibliographers of Western Americana. The rare work at hand is a reaffirmation and amplification of the author's famous work, first published in 1833, entitled "A Short History of Paper Money and Banking in the United States. Including an Account of Provincial and Continental Paper Money..." Gouge's 1833 work includes the first review of as Eric Newman puts it, "the eighteenth century American paper money experience."

559 Wolcott Oliver. AN ADDRESS TO THE PEOPLE OF THE UNITED STATES, ON THE SUBJECT OF THE REPORT OF A COMMITTEE OF THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES, APPOINTED TO "EXAMINE AND REPORT, WHETHER MONIES DRAWN FROM THE TREASURY, HAVE BEEN FAITHFULLY APPLIED TO THE OBJECTS FOR WHICH THEY WERE APPROPRIATED, AND WHETHER THE SAME HAVE REGULARLY BEEN ACCOUNTED FOR," WHICH REPORT WAS PRESENTED ON THE 29TH OF APRIL, 1802.  Sabin 1184.

562 Curtis, George Ticknor. AN ARGUMENT AGAINST THE CONSTITUTIONAL VALIDITY OF THE LEGAL TENDER CLAUSE, CONTAINED IN THE ACT OF CONGRESS OF FEBRUARY 25, 1862, AUTHORIZING THE ISSUE OF TREASURY NOTES; DELIVERED IN THE SUPREME COURT, OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK, FIRST JUDICIAL DISTRICT, NOVEMBER 18, 1862, New York: Wm. C. Bryant & Co.,

Printers, 1862. 29, (3) pages. Original printed tan wrappers a bit discolored. Very good. (also) Roelker, Bernard. ARGUMENT IN FAVOR OF THE CONSTITUTIONALITY OF THE LEGAL TENDER CLAUSE CONTAINED IN THE ACT OF CONGRESS OF FEBRUARY 25, 1862, AUTHORIZING THE ISSUE OF TREASURY NOTES. New York: F. W. Christern, 1863. (4), 42 pages, blank leaf. Original printed gray wrappers a bit dusty. Near fine. (100.00)

Roelker argued for the plaintiff, Lewis H. Meyer, and Curtis argued for the defendant, James J. Roosevelt, in this consequential case. In his October 1, 1863 decision, Judge Davies concluded: "Those whose patriotism leads them to serve or trust the Government of our country, are not compelled to do so on any less advantageous terms than those who labor for or trust private citizens. If there is any hardship in receiving the notes of the nation, it falls equally on all, and if it be a contribution for the support and maintenance of our liberties, it is equally borne by all in exact proportion to the means which each possesses."

563 Whitney, Reuben M. MEMORIAL OF REUBEN M. WHITNEY, TO THE HONORABLE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES U. S. IN RELATION TO THE CHARGES MADE AGAINST HIM, AS A WITNESS BEFORE THE COMMITTEE OF INVESTIGATION INTO THE AFFAIRS OF THE BANK OF THE UNITED STATES. BY THE MINORITY OF THAT COMMITTEE, AND BY A MEMBER OF THAT MINORITY. City of Washington, 1832. 52 pages. Disbound, minor discoloration. Very good. (35.00)

In 1832, Whitney was appointed a Director of the Bank of the United States and he left the Board in January, 1835. Upon the retirement of Langdon Cheves, he resumed his services as Director under the present President of the Bank. He defends himself against the misstatements of those who have attempted to substitute styles light as air, as to the charges in the place of fact, and to impute fraud, forgery and perjury where they cannot be proved.

564 Gallatin, Albert. VIEWS OF THE PUBLIC DEBT, RECEIPTS, & EXPENDITURES OF THE UNITED STATES. Philadelphia: Printed by Matthew Carey, 1801. Second Edition. 72, (80) pages, tables. Unbound, unopened, sewn at spine as issued, contents a trifle worn and browned. Very good or better. (150.00)
Since 26399. His report first published in 1800 remains a classic reference, comprising a keen analysis of the early fiscal operations of the United States Government, under the Comptroller Gallatin was appointed secretary of the Treasury in early 1801, upon the election of Thomas Jefferson as President.

565 Gallatin, Albert. CONSIDERATIONS ON THE CURRENCY AND BANKING SYSTEM OF THE UNITED STATES. Philadelphia: Carey & Lea, Chestnut Street, 1831. 108 pages, tables. Original brown wrappers, contents a bit discolored. Generally very good. (100.00)

An interesting publication, "which, although designed more particularly for Great Britain, we trust may not be devoid of interest to [Americans]." The authors, Mr. Belding from Vermont and Mr. Keith formerly of Boston, "advise all who visit Europe for the first time to pass through England in going to, or returning from, Paris [to attend the Paris Exhibition], instead of taking return tickets by steamers sailing to French ports; for, although it may be a little more expensive, we think there is nothing which will be more delightful, and, as the English say, 'thoroughly enjoyable,' than a run through England in spring, summer, or autumn." They further advise that "With regard to making provision for travelling expenses in Europe, we advise all to bring no funds in currency, or any description of United States Bonds or Securities, except the 1862 and 1865 issues of Five-Twenties, which can always be sold for cash."

Very fine/near new. (100.00)
The Special Hardbound Edition. Autographed in black ink on the front flyleaf by Oscar J. Pearl. Apparently a rare binding variant. It would appear that Kosoff bound up copies of this famous catalogue in small batches. At least two varieties of those bound in the prevailing orange cloth exist and through the years we have seen, as here, two or three examples in red cloth. After the move to California, Kosoff also bound a few copies in brown leatherette. To confuse matters further, at some point in time Frank Katen apparently purchased the remaining copies issued in printed card covers and, over the years, bound up copies in cloth, though without the characteristic black labels. The copy offered here is the first Pearl catalogue we recall ever having encountered signed by the collector.
